

NFP Compensation Bootcamp

Master compensation strategy with NFP national experts!

Become a compensation PRO in just nine weeks with NFP's SHRM-certified bootcamp!

During this high-energy boot camp, NFP national experts will guide you through both basic and advanced compensation strategies. You'll build your skills in job analysis, market analysis and benchmarking to ensure competitive pay structures.

Discover how to design resilient pay structures structures, make individual pay decisions within those frameworks and confidently navigate annual increase cycles and compensation challenges. We'll strengthen your knowledge on variable pay, total rewards and effective communication strategies to enhance your compensation programs.

With actionable insights from day one, you'll be empowered to make strategic, data-driven compensation decisions.

This $2,500 investment is waived for select clients!

Register today for NFP's Fall 2026 Compensation Bootcamp!
